The N. Y. Times says, that the public were far from supposing a few days since that Paphos, the birth-place of Phonician Astarte, was destined to become as celebrated in our century as when the ancients worshipped the seaborn goddess under the form of a conical black stone—probably an aerolite. A Phenician colony 620 years before Christ, Cyprus passed successively into the possession of the Egyptians, the Persians, and the Greeks, became a part of the empire of Alexander the Great. and was wrested from the last of yria, and after the conversion of the Roman Governor, Sergius Paulus, quered from the Byzantine Empire, of which it was an appanage, by the Saracens, these last were forced to make way for Richard of England who took Cyprus as a sort of hors d' œuvre before he commenced the conquest of Palestine. But he of the Lion Heart was as fond of money as he was of glory and hard knocks, so the island was ceded, for a consideration, to Guy de Lusignan-it is said that the treaty was signed on the back of Blondel's guitar-whose descendent preserved the sovereignty for three centurities, when Catrina Conaro, the wid-ow of Jacques III., sold out to the Venetians, much to the chagrin of the collateral branches of the family, some of whom still exist in a state of dismal impecuniosity, in France and Italy, one being a pensioner on the Russian Gov-ernment. Eighty years after her purchase the Queen, of the Sea was driven out by the Turks, in whose possession the island has since remained, naturally going from bad to worse, as is always the case where Islam rules. Only a very few years ago the Almanach de Gotha, added to the titles of the King of Sardinia those of King of Cyprus and and Jerusalem, which appeared upon the money coined by the House of Savoy, as heirs to the Lusignans. But the seriously talked of arresting Lee, dessovereignty was purely in partibus, and never caused any serious ill-feeling with the other claimant, the Sultan, in signed when Victor Emanuel assumed the crown of Italy.

Possibly, under the fostering care of England, the Island may once more blossom like the rose, but at present it has no trade, no manufactures, no roads in the interior, scarcely a decent harbor upon its coast, although Famagosta was the rendezvous of the allied fleets before the battle of Lepanto. Its forlorn fever-stricken population of 135 .-000 fanatical Mussulmans can scarcely gain enough for their own subsistence Idalia have been burned for firewood? the enchanting sites of Amathon are in ruins, and the zealous bigots, in their blind obedience to the Koran's laws, have destroyed the once celebrated vineyards. But, if Cyprus has no commercial value, it is of an incalculable importance as a naval station and a military depot, as it covers the approaches to the coasts of Syria and Egypt, protects England's communications with her Indian possessions, and, with her former fortresses of Gibraltar and Malta, virtually makes of the Medterranean and English take. Of the political morality of the occupation of the island, after the reiterated protestations that England wished for no aggrandizement of her possessions and acted sole-ly in defense of the general interest of Europe, much may be said. But wi h this we have nothing to do. England had certainly a right to demand and take guarantees, and from an English point of view, Lord Beaconfield has made a masterstroke of policy. British diplomacy has won an unquestionable victo-y, a the treaty of the 4th of June skillingly combined and crowned with signal success, is destined to displace, or at least to divide, the hegemony of Eu-

The work of Turkey's vivisection may thus be considered as completed, for the present, by the revision of Gen. Ignatieff's famous document. The treaty which Europe is called upon to salute as the end of an era of war and danger, and as the commencement of a period of progress, peace, and social develop-ment, unbelievers in the immediate advent of the millennium consider to be only a patching up of the old quarrel and as an arrangement permitting the elephant and the whale to come to blows. Sooner or later Russia and England must fight it out, and Asia Minor will be the threatre of the conflict, with the Caucasus on the one side and the Mediterranean on the other, as the bases of operations of the belligerents.

General Grant's Talk.

Springfield Republican. General Grant seems to have taken a great fancy to John Russell Young, the clever newspaper man who "does up" his tour for the New York Herald, and converses with him so freely that the correspondent avers "we have few better talkers in America." Young pected of being concerned in the murder of Eugene Sullivan, of this city, gathers up the best points of divers talks on the rebellion into a letter that covers over a page of the Herald, and we reproduce elsewhere some of the most interesting passages. Grant's recognition of Sherman and Sheridan is as hearty as could be made. There will be some surprise at his judgment of Lee, whose reputation he considers out of all proportion to his achieve-ments; Stonewall Jackson's fame he thinks would have suffered if he had lived to meet Sheridan and our army when it had become well drilled. Joe Johnston was the Southern commander, Grant says, who gave him the most anxiety; Albert Sidney Johnston died toe soon for anybody to tell what he might have achieved. Grant doesn't sympathize with the great theory that Jeff Davis was a drawback on the South; he thinks he did the best any man could have done. Of the generals on the Union side Grant was greatly disappointed in Rosecrans, Stone, Mc-Dowell, whom be considers a real vic-tim of ill luck, and Buell, whom he tled up," and speaks well of Frank Blair and John Logan; gives Hancock a fine character as soldier and man; re-calls fondly the memory of McPherson, who died too early; and excuses Meade's failure to destroy Lee at Gettysburg, on the ground that he was new to his army, though he thinks that, if Sherman or Sheridan had commanded, t might and would have been done.

CAMPAIGN OF THE WILDERNESS. Grant declares that his losses in the Wilderness campaign have been grossly exaggerated; instead of throwing away 100,000 men, his total loss was only the Ptolemies, by Cato, in the year 58
B. C. It was here that the Apostle of the Gentiles landed on his journey from was steadily weakening Lee. Speaking of this campaign, by the way, Grant makes the interesting revelation that he at first thought seriously of massing his army in movable columns, giving his men twelve days' rations and throwing himself between Lee and his communications—a plan, that if success-ful would have shortened the war by a year-but as he was new to the army and it was a risky job, he finally decided on the slower and safer Wilderness move. The iconoclast has at last attacked one of the dearest memories of the war—the long-sung "Battle Above the Clouds." The battle of Lookout Mountain, Grant declares, 'is one of the romances of the war. There was 'no such battle and no action even worthy to be called a battle on Lookout Mountain. It is all poetry." The traditional "council of war" also gets a blow. Grant says he never held one, and never heard of Sherman's or Sherican's doing so. Of course he listened to what anybody at headquarters had to say, "but I always made up my mind to act, and the first that even my staff knew of any movement was when I wrote it out in rough and gave it to be copied off."

AN INTERESTING REMINISCENCE. Of post-rebellion reminiscences the most interesting is Grant's story of how Andy Johnson, in the heat of his determination to "make treason 'odious,' pite his parole, and once inquired rather snappishly what right a military with the other claimant, the Sultan, in commander had to protect an arch-whose favor all rights thereto were retraitor from the laws. Grant replied that the commander's responsibilities were sometimes supreme and his en-gagements with the defeated enemy sacred, and added that, so long as Lee kept his parole, he would resign the command of the army before he would help to arrest him, -and the project was dropped.

"used no pressure about 'the treaty," an expression which can only be accepted on some new interpretation of the term "pressure." Of course Grant still thinks annexation would have been a good thing, -helped solve the Cuban question, given a new home for the blacks, "who were, and, as I hear, are 'still oppressed in the South," allowed us to grow our own coffee and sugar, opened a new field for American capital, and given us an even better than a new Texas or California. So deep-seated is the San Domingo delusion, indeed, that Grant predicts the democrats will revive the project when they come into

Although this is a decided relief to the kind of "Grant talk" we have had so much of lately, though the "third term" drifts into it for a little while, to let the ex-president repeat once more how much he hated to be president and

Bald Mountain Under Scientific Light.

Asheville Citizen. Prof. Kerr, who recently visited Bald Mountain, says that the disturbances there four years ago were due to the forces which first formed the mountain chains, and have continued operative ever since—that is to say, the lateral continental pressure from the Atlantic inward. This pressure is caused by the gradual cooling and consequent shrink-ing of the earth's crust. This pressure is crowding the rocks back upon each other and uplifting them, subjecting them to enormous strain. When the pressure reaches the point of fracture, the rocks give way and there is a grindaccompanying per urbation, tremulation and noise The conditions of a no do not and never have existed. The late phenomena, however, are pro-bably due mainly or wholly to the mere action, of graviation in connection with the ordinary process of disintegra-tion of the rocks, which in that particular locality is accelerated by the numerous joinings which may be observed ed traversing the faces of the cliff.

Radical Injustice.

Oxford Free Lance.

It is admitted by every just man who is not a fanatic that tobacco should not be taxed by the Federal government at all, because as a product of the soil i stands upon a similar footing with wheat, corn, hemp, cotton, &c.

If this discrimination was removed. those States producing tobacco would be treated with something like justice. As it now is the discrimination in favor of New England and against Virginia, Kentucky and North Carolina is unjust and oppressive in the highest degree, Just look at it. Of the $115,000,000 raised from internal revenue last year, Pennsylvania paid $5,000,000, Massa-chusetts less than $3,000,000, Vermont 48,000. Maine and Rhede Island together $545,000, while Virginia paid over $7,000,000, North Carolina nearly $2,000,000, and Kentucky nearly $8,000,000. The Louisville Courier-Journal, dewhich some sections of the country have been favored to the disadvantage of others, remarks upon the fact that the New England States pay a very small proportion of the internal revenue tax. North Carolina pays in proportion to its wealth more than twenty times as much as Maine, or Vermont or Massachusetts, while Virginia pays thirty times as much.

Not Going to the Polls. Louisburg Tines.

It is a fact which cannot be denied. that defeat in many instances, of the Democratic party since the war, has been brought about by the neglect of the white men to go the polls. At such a time as this, when there is so much at stake, and when there is such bright prospect of our success, neglect to do our duty, and our full duty in the present campaign, is to our thinking, unpatriotic and inexcusable. Is there any true man who will this year absent himself from the polls? We cannot believe it. Gentlemen, go to the polls and rate if you have to the polls. and vote, if you have to go through wind and weather, hail and storm, thunder and lightening.

Baltimore Sun. Honorable George H. Williams, of Oregon, Attorney General of the United States under President Grant, says there is a general feeling as far as his observation has extended that General Grant should receive the Republican Presidential nomination, and his opinion is that if Grant is nomineted he will be the next President. With the ex-Attorney General the wish is doubtless father to the thought.

DETERMINED TO WIN. The Democra's entered upon the campaign with the fixed determination to win, and they have spared no pains or expense to accomplish their purpose. Business generally has been suspended, stores closed, every horse and vehicle in Louisburg, has been in demand to envey the citizens to the various speaking places—the whole procession being accompanied by a splendid band, drawn by four horses. The music attracted large crowds to bear the distinguished speakers, the entire canvass from its inception to its close, (on Monday next) has been brillian ly successful, and entitle the people of Franklin to that glorious consummation of their wishes, which certainly awaits them on the 1st of

August. AN ACTIVE CHAIRMAN.

Too much praise cannot be awarded to Col. W. H. Yarborough, Chairman of the Democratic Executive County Committee, for his activity and zeal, in doing his portion of the work so efficiently. He has visited points with the candidates and personally supervised the organization of the township machinery for polling the votes on election day. The Republican leaders coincide that the entire Democratictic ticket will be elected and they have virtually abandoned the field.

THE SPEAKERS,

On our side have acquitted themselves handsomely. W. S. Harris, candidate for the Senate, and C. M. Coke, candidate for the Logislature, our popular and efficient Solicitor, have made reputations which place them in the foremost rank of stump speakers in the State. J. T. Mitcheil, a young lawyer of great promise has also rendered efficient aid in the campaign and won laurels as a popular speaker.

THE HON. J. J. DAVIS has done good service in the cause, having made speeches at several places in the county. With such Titans on the stump the Radicals could not hope to succeed. Last, but not least, as a potent elenote the material aid rendered by W. K. Davis, Esq., the former clerk of the Superior Court, who declined a place on the ticket, but has been working perhaps harder than if he had been a candidate. He has no superior in # the State as a successful electioneerer.

The County Canvass. A large crowd was present to hear the candidates at Milburnie yesterday. In addition to the numbers from the country round about, a great many went out from the city, the nearness of the speaking place making it convenient. The county caudidates first made their speeches, announcing themselves, their ideas, &c.

Colonel John A. McDonald, then led candidates for the Legislature. He walked into Bledsoe in heavy style, charging him with desiring to sell into slavery the children of Oscar Alston, a free-negro, who were out of the State, at school in Ohio. He used the name as an illustration. Bledsoe denied the charge. McDonald then told Bledsoe he had changed his base on the poll tax question, as well as that of a railway from this city to Tarboro. Bledsoe then took the stand and sailed in to make things lively for McDonald. It does the Democrats good to see these parties go for each other, and bring out and develop a thousand and one beauties of character. Geo. H. Snow, Esq., then took the stand, and delivered an able speech, in which he made vivid explanations of Radical plans and villainies. He addressed a few remarks to Major Bledsoe, at whose conclusion that gentleman responded. The other candidates fol-lowed, in order. The impression made by our standard-bearers was highly gratifying here as elsewhere. E. R. Stamps, the Democratic stan-dard bearer for the House of Representatives, unlimbered his guns and let fly his powerful and destructive missiles. He fairly riddles Magnin, gives a passing shot at the lesser figure-heads of the Republicans and passes on to the argument of important questions. Mr. Stamps is an earnest and eloquent speaker, dignified yet easy in his address, aggressive and bold, yet never descending to personal abuse on the ar's of the demogogue. He meets with a cordial reception everywhere, is listened to with attention and admiration and will have the undivided support of the Democrats and draw many votes from the Republicans. He is making one of the most effective canvasses ever made in Wake county. The other Republican candidates acquitted themselves in their usual manner. Extended report is necessarily crowded out.

Messrs. H. C. Olive and L. D. Stephenson, Democratic candidates for the House of Representative, living at a great distance from the place of speaking and desiring to reach home before night, simply announced themselves as candidates and retired.

Anticipation of and belief in victory are high, nor will either be doomed to disappointment, for the revelations of the records of Radicals have been such as to make them stand in no pleasant

The Asheville Citizen wants to know what means it that Gen. Clingman's letters assaulting Governor Vance, are printed in campaign document form and circulated over the State by Independents and Radicals. Some attention might be profitably given to the subject, and the fact elicited as to who does this thing? Where are they printed, by whose order, and wherefore?

THE Virginia papers are complimentary to Judge Cax as a gentleman "so conscientious that having concluded to stand for Congress, the first thing he did was to resign his judgeship." The Richmond State says :- "How rare a man is this judge, in an age so grasping that few let go one round of the ladder until safely seated upon a higher one." Upon which the Wilmington Star remarks:-"Judge Cox's time had nearly expired, and he had held his last Court. As he intended to enter the political arena and endeavor to secure the nomination to Congress in the Metropolitan district, he very properly resigned his for the Iusane, in May last read a paper office. It was not a great sacrifice, but before the Association of Superintena becoming action none the less."

In Nash and Wilson, the County candidates are confronted with Independents, but the old Democracy of that section of the State is too solid for the independent device of the Radicals experts who are in the babit of selling support of either party. They caunot to accomplish anything. The people their services in important cases of be friends to the Democratic party, be will sustain their nominees, and Inde- trials for murder, contesting wills, and cause they are trying to break down or-

Radicals are but making simple tools of side that can tender the largest fcc. the Independents, a fact they will find Insanity being the special'y of the out to their everlasting shame one of these days.

The Democratic composin in Frankn is a live one. Every candidate is loing his duty, and the Democratic anks are solid, without a division or dissatisfaction. Captain W. S. Harris. for Sepator, is pronounced by the Times a Jupiter in the field, and C. M. Cooke, Esq., for the House, a Titan, piling mountains of accusation on the heads of the enemy, to their utter confusion and dismay.

The County Campaiga.

The Democrats of Wake have every reason to be satisfied with the campaign of their county and Legislative candidates. It has been able, diligent industrious, aggressive and well conducted, and the enemy has suffered. Overwhelming and utter defeat of the Radical party is registered a week before the election.

The list of candidates is so large that the speaking time had to be consumed principally by the legislative candidates, thus compelling those for county officers to do their work in a quiet way among the people, without making due reputation on the stump and in the papers, but they have done their work well, and the result of their efforts will be seen on the day of elec-

The gentlemen of the Democratic legislative ticket have done nobly. But two, Messrs. Snow and Stamps, are professional speakers, but Messrs. Oliver, Richardson and Stephenson have more than filled the measure of public expectation. Where all have done so well and performed their part so satisfactorily, it would be out of place to discriminate here. It is sufficient to say that Wake county never had five better young men in the field, or men of whom the Democracy was more justly proud. They will be the peers of any in the Legislature.

Whipped into Good Behavior.

Like a mean cur whipped into good behavior, the North State comes whining this week:-"No man, anywhere, "that we ever heard of, questions Tom

"Holt's integrity and honesty." Yet, in this same paper, a week ago, the boldest insinuation was made against the "integrity and honesty" of Colonel Holt. The matter of the medal award ed to Mr. George Cooper, of Guilford, by the North Cavolina Agricultural Society, was referred to for no other purpose than to prejudice the character If the Alamance Democratic candidate for Senator, as a man unworthy of the suffrages of the people of Guilford, The circumstantial statement could have been made will no other object than a reflection on the honesty of Colonel Holt, and the language of the North State article admitted of but one construction.

By the same mail which brings the last issue of the Greensboro State, comes a printed circular from the office of that paper, entitled: "That medal; Mr. Cooper's statement," in which the effort is still further made to convict Colonel Ho't of falsehood and duplicity in regard to the matter. This paper is issued for distribution throughout the counties of Alamance and Guilford, in the hope of injuring and defeating Colonel Holt. What does this mean but an assault upon his honor and integrity? If he has been guilty of no wrong, why circulate documents Lavin no other object than his personal as well as his political injury? Why should this sheet have printed and be at pains to chenlate a pap r from one gentleman reflecting on another, whose integrity and honesty" it declares hat:- 'No man, anywhere, that we 'ever heard of, questions?" The purpose was plain and undisguised to assail C.1. Holt, for words were never more openly employed in any connection than in the article which took up the discussion of Holt's hones. ty as public property, and with such view to call it into question. It was one of those assaults characteristic of the source from which this one emanated: and conceived in a mean, cowardly spirit, its authors lack the manhood to stand up to it. Being refuted and apthey would disclaim it, and after the fashion of such cattle, seek to dignify their rascality by such hints at lawsuits as this:-"We will converse at "the proper time, in the proper place "and in the proper manner with the "responsible proprietors of the News "about the libelous matter contained in the article referred to."

This resorting to courts, under circumstances like these, for damage to character, has become a convenient refuge for cowards, and nothing would be more natural or expected, or welcome as to that matter, than a suit by the conductors of the Greensboro State against the Raleigh News. There can be no question about responsibility in this quarter, ample ,accessible and accommodating; nor is it likely that the parties involved are Wanting in the dis-

Like the Ishmaelites. pendents will this year learn the lesson in other matters involving life, liberty so often taught their Radical allies, for whether gentlemen know it or not, the these experts are at the service of the Medical Superindents of Asylums, this scandalous practice seemed to them a reflection on the whole medical freterrity, and that it was peculiarly with in the province of this body to discuss and denounce the practice, and put upon such charlatans, mountebanks and professional murderers the seal of its condemnation that should consign them to merited infamy.

To Dr. Grissom was appropriately assigned the task of unmasking these base wretches, and revealing in al their hideous deformity "these traffickers in human misery, who sell their opinions for gold; * * * whose bowels are but bags of gold, to feed which, spider-like, they cast their loathsome arms about a helpless prey." How well and ably he discharged that duty may be inferred from this paragrap :: - " It is not as we remember the victims already buried, that we see 'Draco reappear, with swift condem-'nation upon his lips, it is not that the scales of justice drip with blood from hands already dyed in gore, but that behind the black robe of the semi-'judicial expert, may be heard a sound, more fearful than the groans of sufering humanity, more ominous than the click of loaded arms, a sound that chills the marrow as with the breath ing of a fabled vampire-IT IS THE CLINK OF M )NEY UNDER THE GIRDLE." The celebrated Dr. Hammond, of New York, fancied himself a party aimed at, and long before the association address was in type, he came out with a low and vulgarly abusive "open letter" to Dr. Grissom. This has proroked a rejoinder, as courteous of speech as it is elegant in phrase, but as biting in sarcasm, fatal in facts, and of as withering words as English composition is capable of producing. Dr. Hammond stands convicted as the false expert of the century, "the chief offender whose ill-gotten gains and strong personal influence enable him to debauch the public press, and gild his wickedness before the world."

A number of cases are cited from the New York Law Reports in which Dr. Hammond figured as a-medical expert to assist in determining the weight to be allowed the plea of insanity in capital cases. Sometimes he is found on the side of the defence, and at others aiding the prosecution. "Medical Congan's is what he has sometimes termed himself, and like legal counsel he is found taking contingent fees. Examination of his testimony shows that, to suit the case, and accommodate himself to the side he might happened to be employed on, he has frequently fluly contradicted in the one case, his expert testimony given in the other. It is conclusively shown that he has cleared guilty men, perfectly sane, pleading insanity, and assisted to consign to the scaffeld raving maniacs, being paid for his testimony by the State the defence not being able to offer a bigger fee. It is said that n one case, where the court adjourned in the midst of his testimony against a a defendant, he received a check from the said defendant during the recess. and going upon the stand again, he reversed his theories and cleared the accused, and pocketed snug fees from both the prosecution and the defence. A very amusing incident is related by Dr. Grissom, of Dr. Hammond testing the brain of a distinguished ex-Senato: of the United States, now living in North Carolina, for congestion, by having him gaze on a needle. If it pointed in one direction then the seat of disease was in the back of the bead. if in another in the front.

In 1866 he figured in this State, in the trial of the Johnson will case at Edenton, Judge Merrimon on the bench, and such emineut counsel as Governors Graham, Bragg and Vance, Hors, B. F. Moore, John Pool, Wm N. H. Smith, Major H. A. Gilliam and others appearing on the respective sides I the case. Dr. Hammond appeared as an expert. He declared the testator insane. In the course of his examination he fared but indifferently at the hands of Mr. Moore. It was developed that he had received a fee of five hundred dollars in hand, and was to have two thousand more if he made his evidence sufficiently strong to break the will. He left before the conclusion of the trial. His testimony did not weigh feather with the Supreme Court when that tribunal came to review the decision of the court below, but the high court was eloquent in its language of contempt for the expert whose object and interest it apparently was to "mislead rather than to insruct."

In his last production Dr. Grissom presents the record of the court martial which cashiered Dr. Hammond as Snrgeon-General of the United States, in 1864, for speculative practices in the Chief Medical department of the army, which record is as damning as anything could be

I have used the Kanthine now for three years, and have induced others to try it, and have never known it to fall in accomplishing all you claim for it. It is an excellent tonic a pleasant dressing, removing and preventing dandruff and all unpleasant itching, promoting and preserving the natural growth and color of the hair, and rendering it glossy and pliable. I confidently, cheerfully and knowingly recommend it.

ELECTION THURSDAY, AUGUST 1ST.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

-Have you registered? -Only three more days till election.

-Go to church to-day, old advice, but good for all that. -Not very many votes were challenged yesterday, which was the day for that duty. --- The city was again in a state of perfect quiet, yesterday, no cases appearing before the Mayor.

-Watermelon sociables are now the rage; the participants at work on a melon on the sidewalk, four at a time. - The Beaufort Atlantic is full of entertaining descriptions, of the pleasures and entertainments of our seaside | be found 'square' in a trade.

--- The supply of meats has not been large in market this week, but vegetables, fruits and melons have been superabundant.

One of the most enjoyable places to visit is the room of the Y. M. C. A., over Branson's book store, where services are held each Sunday at 5. 30 p.

-Merchants throughout the State will find it to their interest to consult the advertisements of Mr. W. H. Dodd, a reliable man in every respect, whose acquaintance is worth culti-

Temperature yesterday, as indicated by the thermometer at Tucker's store : 6 a. m., 77° 2 p. m., 94°

The New Gas Works.

Not much has been lately heard in regard to the establishment of the new gas works; but it is not thought the plan will fall through.

Music by the Band.

The Raleigh German Silver Cornet Band has been engaged to play at the speaking at Lynn's store on the 31st inst., and will add much to the liveliness of the affair.

Another Hot Wave.

We are now being treated to a repetition of the scorching of last week. The thermometer got out of bounds yester day, climbed clear out of reach. As will be seen it was the hottest day but one of the season.

Personals.

Capt. Jno. E. Dugger, Principal of the Graded School, has returned from Chapel Hill. The teachers of his corps of assistance remain for a week longer. to complete a special course in the Kindergarten studies.

A Dangerous Place.

The heavy stove covers of the well near Pescud's, Lee & Co.'s, have been left open, and an orifice about a half foot wide is thus left, which makes an ugly trap for the feet of the unwary. It is, probably, a good idea to close it

Rather a ghastly head the reader will think, but the idea of repose seems just boiled down in a coffin. It looks aggravating to see one of those cool looking receptacles placidly leaning against a wall, as a sweltering pedestrian goes by. Really at such a time one feels like saying "Give us a rest."

The Lee Monument Fund. The Board of Managers of the Lee Monument Association, are making arrangements to have a competitive drill between infantry companies of the various States, to be held at Richmond, at the grounds of the Virginia Agricultural Society, during the last week in October. The Governor of this State will allow any commands to be present Any aid and encouragement of the noble work of erecting a suitable monument to the memory of the great chief-tain is proper, and Col. S. Basset French, Secretary of the Association, is making every effort for its success.

Col. J. T. Adams. We publish the large and attractive advertisement of this well known and reliable gentleman, now conducting an extensive milling enterprise at Osgood, N. C., where he has been successfully engaged in the same business since 1871. His rough lumber wherever used stands high as a good merchantable article and always up to representation. No one who has dealings with Col. Adams will fail to give him his just need of praise. business man. In addition to his lumber business, he is largely engaged in the sale of wood and can offer superior inducements to parties who are now able to lay in a winter supply. We commend Col. Adams to the public, privilege of snaping a character for usefulness. The exercise of patience and the preservation of Baby's health by the proper use of Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup will give them great present comfort and prospective happiness, 25 commend Col. Adams to the public,

FOR UPWARDS OF THIETY YEARS MRS. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for children. It corrects acidity of the stowach, relieves wind colid, regulates the bowels, arising from teething or other causes. An old and well-tried remedy. 25 cents a bottle.

For Rape.

Another negro fiend has been arrested in Franklin county, charged with the commission of this horrible crime upon the person of his step-daughter. The man's name is Sydney Person, and that of his victim is Eliza Canaday. Person was arrested in Franklinton, and at once brought before Justice W. H. Mitchell, for preliminary trial, and was committed to jail to await trial at the next term of the Superior Court. The affair, as might be expected, has caused great excitement.

The County Jail.

The massive walls of this building prevent the heat from being felt, and no one can realize what a delightfully cool time the immates have; probably they dont even appreciate it, but it is grateful, nevertheless.
Religious services are now held in the jail yard each Sunday at 6:30 p. m The preoners at that time are turned into the yard. These exercises are conducted by that noble society, the Young Men's Christian Association. It is hoped they may prove of benefit to the prisoners, and they are in charge of zealous workers in the cause.

Awaiting the Result.

William H. Pope was brought in and placed in jail by Deputy Sherifi Harry Rhodes, from Eagle Rock township. Pope was one of the parties in the cut-ting affray at Eagle Rock at the speaking on Friday. He cut William H. Blinson with a pocket knife, after a dispute, so terribly on the back of the shoulder and side, that he now lies in a critical condition. Pope is held to awat the result of the injuries of his late adversary. He has a severe cut in the left side from a knife, which Blinson seized. Dr. Hines visited him yesterday, and said the wound was not dangerous.

Excursion to Auburn.

The County candidates speak at Auburn, to-morrow. Arrangements have been made for a train to leave the N. C. Depot for that place, at 81 a. m., and returning, to leave Auburn at 6 and arrive here at 7 p. m. The fare for the round trip will be 50 cents. This is the last opportunity to take a pleasant trip on the railroad to a speaking, and also gives a good chance to aid and enourage our candidates in the gallant fight they are making to rid old Wake of Radical rule. Let there be a turn out in force. Ample accommodations will be provided for 300 persons.

J. McC. Ellington. Esq. We direct attention to the attractive advertisement of this live, energetic and progressive business man whose extensive saw mills are located at Apex, N. C. where he is driving a successful lumber enterprise. Mr. Ellington has a wide reputation throughout the State as a reliable and business like man, his lumber also has an extensive sale, he having furnished over three million feet to the Tredegar Iron Works, Richmond, Va., and about two thirds of all the lumber used on the R. &. A. R. R. His milling capacity is about ten thousand feet daily. He is one of our representative men and will always

During the whole of her prostrated sufferings she was never heard to murmur, and to the last expressed no fear of death, her soul was ever full of love and piety which was exemplified in her devotion to the cause of Christ, her husband, her warm affection for her children, and in her kindness and charity to her numerous neighbors and friends. Farewell Sermon.

Rev. C. R. Vaughn, D. D., the beloved pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, this evening delivers his farewell sermon to his congregation. During his residence in this city, Dr. Vaughn has, by his perfect gentleness of disposition, his many acts of kind-ness, together with all the large qualities of mind and heart, made the entire community his warm friends.

In his church, and among his own flock, his position as pastor has always been an enviable one. A gentleman of rare ability and attainments, his command of language and all the winning arts of the true orator, is such as to give him a reputation more than local and memories pleasant and profitable as well, of his sermons are always carried away by his hearers. His vigorous prosecution of Church and Sundayschool work has been ardently and faithfully carried on, and has had its results in producing a state of energy and life in both to which many are unfamiliar. It has been the earnest desire, not only of the members of his flock, but of the general public as well, that Dr. Vaughn might remain here, but his health, somewhat impaired by his faithful exertions, will not, he says, permit his further charge of the church. So this evening he appears before his people for the last time, as their pastor.

Surest Tranquilizer of the Nerves.

The surest tranquilizer of the nerves is a medicine which remedies their supersensitiveness by invigorating them. Over-tension of the nerves always weakens them. What they need, then, is a tonic, not a sedative. The latter is only useful when there is intense mental excitement and an immediate necessity exists for producing quietude of the brain. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters restores tranquility of the nerves by endowing them with the vigor requisite to bear, without being iarred or disturbed unhealthfully, the ordinary impressions produced through the media of sight, hearing and reflection. Nay, it does more than this,—it enables them to sustain a degree of tension from mental application which they would be totally unable to endure without its assistance. Such at least is the irresistible conclusion to be drawn from the testimony of business and professional men, litterateurs, clergymen, and others who have tested the fortifying and reparative influence of this celebrated tonic and nervine.

Dear Sir.—I take the pleasure of writing you a small certificate concerning Vegetine prepared by you. I have been a sufferer with the hyspepsia for over forty years, and have had the Chronic Diarroses for over six months, and have tried most every thing; was given up to die, and did not expect to live from day to day, and no physician could truch my case. I saw your Vegetine recommended to cure hyspepsis. I commenced using it, and I continued doing so, and em now a well womon and restored to perfect health. All who are afflicted with this terrible disease, I would indly recommend to try it for the benefit of their health, and it is excellent as a blood purifier.

By Dr. T. B Forbes, M. D. for MRS. WM. H. FORBES.

Vegetine.—When the blood becomes lifeless and stagnant, either from change of weather or of climate, want of exercise, firegular diet, or from any other cause, the Vegetine will renew the blood, carry off the putrid humors, cleanse the stomach, regulate the bowels, and impart a tone of vigo. to the whole body. Dear Sir,—This is to certify that I had been suffering from a Rose Cancer on my right breast, which grew very rapidly, and all my friends had given me up to die, when I heard of your medicine, Vegetine, recommended for Cancer and Cancerous Humors. I commenced to take it, and soon found myself beginning to feel better; my health and spirits both felt the benign influence which it exerted, and in a few montus from the time I commenced the use of the Vegetine, the Cancer came out almost bedily.

ALL DISEASE OF THE BLOOD—If Vegetine will relieve pain. cleanse, purify, and cure such diseases, restoring the patient to perfect health after trying different physicians, many remedies, suffering for years, is it not conclusive proof, if you are a sufferer, you can be cured? Why is this medicine performing such great cures? It works in the blood, in the circulating fluid. It can truly be called the Great Blood Purifier. The great source of disease originates in the blood; and no medicine that does not act directly upon it, to purify and renovate, has any just claim upon public attention.
